The American Numismatic Association (ANA) Money Museum offers a number of small educational traveling exhibits to ANA member clubs, schools, non-profit and commercial institutions. Each exhibit contains numismatic material, label text and graphics which will fit in the standard coin dealer or ANA convention cases measuring about 20" x 33" x 3."

Cases are required and are not provided by the ANA; however, they are available for an additional fee or may be available for loan from your local ANA member coin club. There is a $20 per case fee plus shipping costs, which vary according to the destination. Should you need a case, please contact the ANA to make arrangements. *Shipping rates subject to change without notice.

To reserve a traveling exhibit please contact the Money Museum at least 6 to 8 weeks in advance of your anticipated exhibit dates or event and fill out the reservation form and return it to the museum. When filling out the reservation form, please indicate the exact date that you will need to receive the exhibit. One-way postage and insurance is paid in advance to the Money Museum. Borrower is responsible for return postage and insurance. Should you have any questions, or would like to reserve an exhibit, please contact the Money Museum at 719.482.9828 or mudd@money.org.

Reservation forms may be returned via facsimile at 719.634.4085 or to the following address:
