

SPONSORS SHOW THEIR SUPPORT FOR ANA NATIONAL MONEY SHOW

Seventeen sponsors have contributed a total of $50,500 to support the American Numismatic Association's (ANA) National Money Showâ„¢ 2001 in Salt Lake City, Utah, March 8-10.

"We are extremely pleased to see the wonderful support for this show," says ANA Convention Services Manager Brenda Bishop. "These sponsors help to make this convention the great event it is. On behalf of the membership, I want to thank them all."

The four Title Sponsors - each donating $7,500 - are:

Numismatic supplier H.E. Harris & Company
Coin grading service Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC)
Auction firm Superior Galleries of Beverly Hills
On-line auction firm Yahoo! Auctions

Title Sponsors will have their name imprinted on the registration bags given to all visitors registering for the three-day show and on the welcome banner at the entrance to the bourse. Title Sponsors also receive free convention program advertising, a recognition banner above their bourse table and sponsor ribbons for their staff.

The 13 Secondary Sponsors for the Salt Lake City show each donated $1,000 or more and will be recognized on the entry and bourse-table signage, staff ribbons and convention program advertising.
