

A M E R I C A N

NUMISMATIC

A S S O C I A T I O N

The American Numismatic Association is a nonprofit educational organization dedicated to helping people discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of programs:

Publications
Educational Programs
Conventions & Seminars
Library
Money Museum

A Brief History of the ANA

“The foundation of the ANA was not laid for today alone but for the long and distant future.” —Dr. George F. Heath

The ANA was founded in October 1891 in Chicago.

In 1912, the Association gained national prominence when granted a Federal Charter, signed by President Taft.

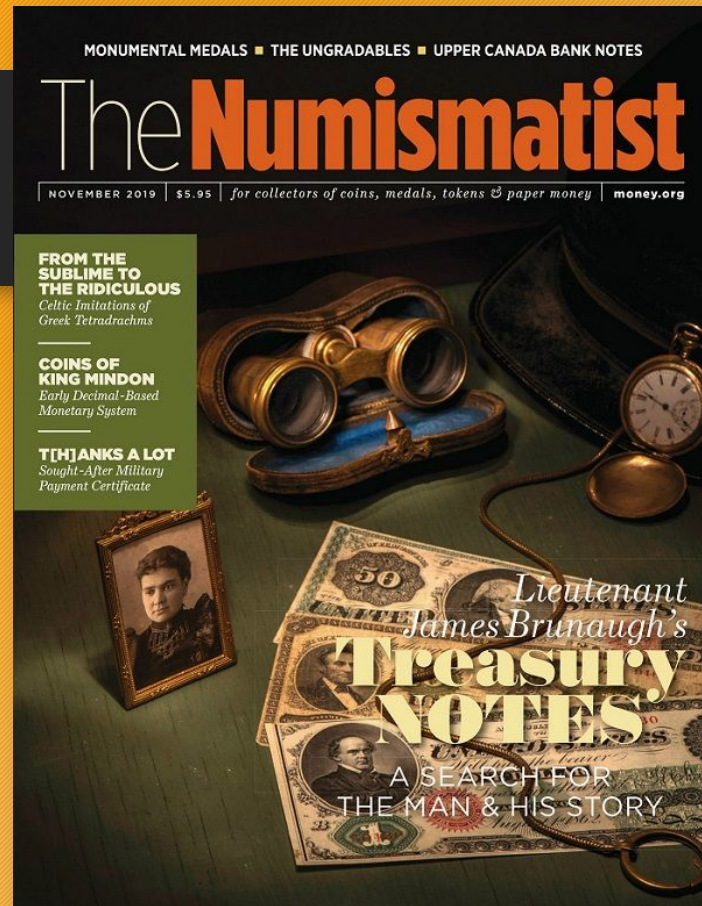

In June of 1967, the ANA located its headquarters to Colorado Springs, Colo. where it remains today.

The Numismatist

The official publication of the ANA focuses on the fun, the history and the allure of coin collecting.

- Published for over 130 years
- Original articles written by leading voices in numismatics
- Digital archives of every issue

Educational Programs:

Technical Seminars

The ANA has built a reputation for high-quality, hands-on numismatic learning opportunities through the Technical Series Seminars.

With some of the best instructors in the industry and small class sizes, connections between student and instructors can be formed, providing an opportunity for professional camaraderie and networking.

These seminars align with different numismatic conventions throughout the nation, teaching how to grade coins, how to detect counterfeits, coin photography and more.

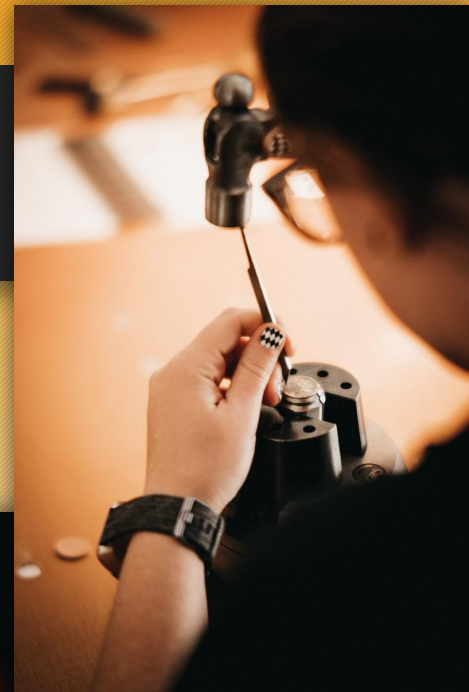

Educational Programs:

Summer Seminar

An annual two-week event for numismatic learning and camaraderie that offers students a varied selection of week-long courses designed for discovery or continued study.

- Over 50 years of Summer Seminar
- Scholarship opportunities
- Over 40 classes to choose from
- Freedom to build friendships and meet inspirational hobby leaders

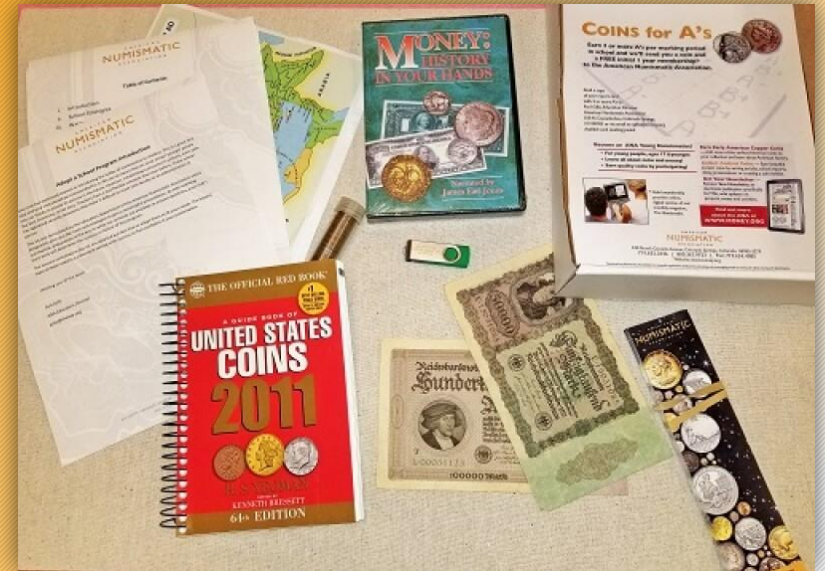

Educational Programs:

Coins in the Classroom

The ANA provides lesson plans on various numismatic topics for teachers.

The ANA also offers Adopt-A-School Program Educational Kits. Each kit includes instructions to all the different lesson plans, which can be used by parents, district representatives or club members.

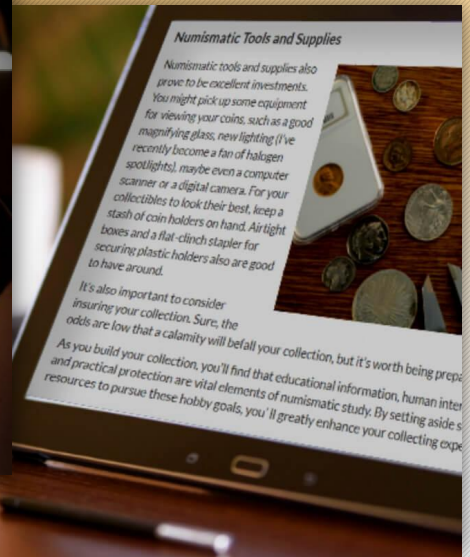

Educational Programs:

Online Resources

The ANA provides robust collector resources for all collecting levels on money.org. Resources include:

- Consumer resources
- Informative eBooks
- Videos
- Coin Dealer Directory
- Coin Club Directory
- Links to numismatic websites

Educational Programs:

Young Numismatists

The future of the hobby is dependent on younger audiences becoming interested in collecting. The ANA supports Young Numismatists with:

- Specialized educational programs
- Free coins
- Scholarship opportunities
- Games and trivia
- Videos

Annual ANA Conventions:

National Money Show® & World's Fair of Money®

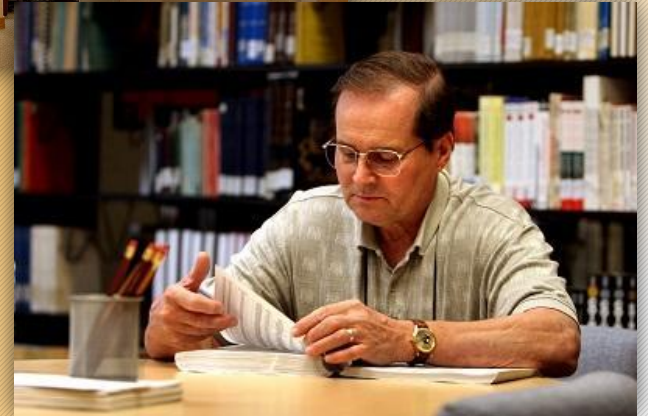

- Hundreds of dealers
- Educational programming
- Live auctions
- Exhibits of rare historical numismatic items
- Family-friendly activities

ANA Numismatic Library

The world's largest numismatic lending library with more than 128,000 books, auction catalogs, periodicals and DVDs.

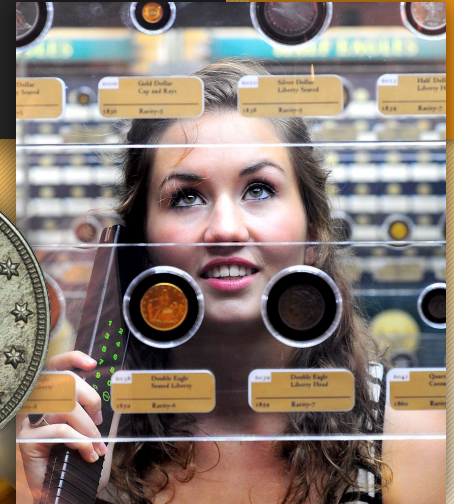

Members have free borrowing privileges.

ANA Money Museum

The museum explores art, history, science and much more to promote the diverse nature of money and related items. Visitors can find spectacular rarities and learn about history through the world of money.

- America's largest museum dedicated to numismatics
- Three main galleries
- Virtual exhibits

A M E R I C A N
NUMISMATIC
A S S O C I A T I O N

money.org

800-367-9723