

PROCLAMATION

Colorado Springs, Colorado

October 20, 2016

WHEREAS, on October 20 - 23, 2016, the City of Potosí, Bolivia, will hold the "First International Numismatic Convention of Historians and Numismatists" in the Imperial Villa of Potosí as a tribute to the prevailing economic and monetary activity of this historic city; therefore be it

RESOLVED that the American Numismatic Association, the world's largest coin-collecting organization, congratulates and thanks all the individuals and countries participating in and organizing this three-day event; and be it

RESOLVED that the American Numismatic Association, on behalf of its 25,000 members and 400 member clubs, expresses its sincere gratitude to all minting agencies, institutions, scholars and numismatists that shared their knowledge and expertise at this conference; and be it

RESOLVED that the American Numismatic Association extends its best wishes to the organizers and participants for an enjoyable, productive, safe and successful convention.

Respectfully submitted by the ANA Resolution Committee, October 20, 2016.

John & Nancy Wilson, Charles Opitz, staff liaison ANA
Editor Barbara Gregory and board liaison ANA Governor
Dr. Ralph Ross