Partners and Sponsors Support the Anaheim World's Fair of Money

Wednesday, August 3, 2016—Many organizations and individuals play a part in ensuring the World's Fair of Money® retains a strong educational focus. Thanks to the support of 25 dedicated sponsors and over 75 individual patrons, this year's show is guaranteed to be the biggest, most educational numismatic event of the year.

The convention takes place Aug. 9-13 in Hall D of the Anaheim Convention Center at 800 West Katella Ave., adjacent to Disneyland, in Anaheim, Calif.

Corporate sponsors pledging support include:

World’s Fair of Money

The five-day event features nearly 1,000 dealers buying and selling coins, currency and related items; a wide range of seminars and educational presentations by notable numismatists; major auctions by Stack’s Bowers Galleries and Heritage Auctions; as well as exhibits showcasing priceless rarities from the Money Museum and private collections.

Show hours are 10 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Aug. 9-12 and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Aug. 13. Admission is $8 for adults; ANA members and children 12 and under are always free. Last admission is 30 minutes prior to closing. A $2 discount coupon for non-members is available online at www.worldsfairofmoney.com.

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered, nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging the study and collection of coins and related items. The ANA helps its nearly 25,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of educational and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, and conventions.
