

World's Fair of Money in Anaheim Just Around the Corner

The American Numismatic Association's World's Fair of Money® in Anaheim is rapidly approaching and promises to be the biggest, most fun coin show of the summer. The convention takes place Aug. 9-13 in Hall D of the Anaheim Convention Center at 800 West Katella Ave., adjacent to Disneyland.

The five-day event features nearly 1,000 dealers buying and selling coins, currency and related items; a wide range of seminars and educational presentations by notable numismatists; major auctions by Stack's Bowers Galleries and Heritage Auctions; as well as exhibits showcasing priceless rarities from the Money Museum and private collections.

Show hours are 10 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Aug. 9-12 and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Aug. 13. Admission is $8 for adults; ANA members and children 12 and under are always free. Last admission is 30 minutes prior to closing.

A $2 discount coupon for non-members is available online at www.worldsfairofmoney.com. ANA members can enter the show 30 minutes before the public on Wednesday, Aug. 10 through Saturday, Aug. 13.

Going once, going twice, sold!

Heritage Auctions and Stack's Bowers Galleries are serving as the Official Auctioneers for this year's event. Treasures being auctioned include:

Heritage Auctions:

1880 Flowing Hair Stella
Judd-1657,
PR-65 (NGC).

1620 Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel Friedrich Ulrich 10 Taler,
MS-61 (NGC).

Stack's Bowers Galleries:

1898 Liberty Head Double Eagle
Proof-65+ Deep Cameo (PCGS). CAC.
From the Kiev Collection.
Ex Clapp-Eliasberg.

"1781" (1782) Libertas Americana Medal
Original. Silver. 47 mm.
By Augustin Dupre.
Betts-615. MS-62 (NGC).

Museum-Quality Displays

The American Numismatic Association will present a stunning Museum Showcase of numismatic rarities, featuring displays of objects seldom seen by the public. Highlights include:

- The Idler/Beebe 1804 silver dollar and McDermott/Beebe 1913 Liberty Head nickel, as well as a comprehensive selection of California National bank notes.
- A rare Massachusetts 20-shilling note from 1690—an example of the first government-issued paper money in the Western world; only seven examples are known.
- The remarkable Horseneck Collection of Type 1 $20 gold pieces—introduced in 1850 during the California Gold Rush, the $20 double eagle is the largest regular-issue U.S. gold coin.
- An incredible sampling of California gold coins and bars recovered from the SS Central America wreck. Its cargo included thousands of 1857 $20 gold pieces produced at the San Francisco Mint, as well as privately struck gold coins and ingots.
- A display from Banco de Mexico titled “The Odyssey of the Porfirian Notes,” exhibiting a selection of rare notes that circulated during the administrations of Mexican President Porfirio Díaz (1877-80 and 1884-1911).

Educational Programs

Show attendees are invited also invited to attend the free Money Talks lectures. The informative 30- to 45-minute programs are presented by some of the hobby's most noted authorities. Presentations are offered Thursday, Aug. 11 through Saturday, Aug. 13, in the Avila Room of the Hilton Anaheim Hotel. Topics to be covered include: Trends that are Shaping the Coin Collecting Hobby Today, Double Dimes and the Amazing Discovery at the Carson City Mint; Hidden Profits in Modern U.S. Mint Silver and Gold Medals; The ANA Celebrates Its 125th Anniversary; The Olympic Games: History & Numismatics; and more. To view a full list of Money Talks presentations and times, visit www.worldsfairofmoney.com.

Collector Exhibits

Collector exhibits are among the most popular features at every ANA show. It's a great opportunity for hobbyists to share their collections and research with fellow numismatists through high-quality displays. The individual creativity is often rivaled only by the quality and variety of the items on display. Visit booth 103 to view this year's exhibits.

Social Events

In addition to the annual banquet and Sundman Luncheon, the ANA welcomes hobbyists to the following Anaheim social events.

- 125th Anniversary Reception—Join the ANA in celebrating a milestone birthday at a special 125th Anniversary Reception on Aug. 9 at the Anaheim Hilton. Enjoy the comradery of fellow numismatists, hors d'oeuvres, a cash bar, and a special 125th anniversary keepsake; the cost to attend is $25. A limited number of tickets are still available.
- Legacy Series—Following the Sundman Luncheon, members are encouraged to attend the Legacy Series, which will honor the life and contributions of David Sundman, president of Littleton Coin Company.
- ANA Member and Donor Reception—The always-popular ANA Member and Donor Reception takes place Aug. 11 and recognizes 25- and 60-year members, lead donors, Dealer Booster of the Year, John and Nancy Wilson Member Booster Award, Century Club awards, and service awards. This is a great event for members to meet new friends and catch up with old acquaintances. Admission is free.

For additional information visit www.worldsfairofmoney.com or call (719) 482-9867.

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered, nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging the study and collection of coins and related items. The ANA helps its nearly 25,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of educational and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, and conventions. For more information, call 719-632-2646 or visit www.money.org.