

Numismatists across America observed National Coin Week (NCW), April 17-23. The theme of the annual event was "Portraits of Liberty: Icon of Freedom," with activities and promotional materials celebrating numismatic depictions of Liberty throughout history.

ANA members and clubs around the country presented programs, exhibits and meetings in conjunction with the observance. The Association provided bookmarks, brochures, pinback buttons, and educational materials to the 86 ANA-member coin clubs who registered. An open house at the ANA's Edward C. Rochette Money Museum in Colorado Springs on April 23 drew more than 230 visitors, who enjoyed coining demonstrations in the "Mini-Mint" area and the opportunity to spin a prize wheel for free numismatic gifts.

The ANA created trivia activities for members and clubs, challenging participants to answer questions about Liberty. The grand-prize winners—ANA life member Robert Maisch of South Dakota and the Wisconsin Valley Coin Club—each received a proof 2016 American Eagle tenth-ounce $5 gold piece; a 2016 U.S. Mint Silver Proof Set, and a 2016 ANA 125th anniversary Guide Book of United States Coins (the "Red Book") signed by editor Kenneth Bressett. Second-place honors went to young numismatist Cole Hendrickson and the Cedar Rapids Coin Club, while third place was awarded to ANA life member Dave Welch and the Nashua Coin Club. Other clubs that earned high scores and prizes included the Colorado Springs Numismatic Society, Dallas Coin Club, Stoneham Coin Club, Honolulu Coin Club, Northwest Detroit Coin Club, Central Arkansas Coin Club and Niagara Frontier Coin Club.

Every year during the third week of April, the ANA and its members celebrate National Coin Week by inviting others to learn about the joys of collecting by studying coins and other forms of money. Start making plans for next year's National Coin Week, scheduled for April 16-22.
