What's Popular

Developing a Passion for Liberty Seated Coinage

Instructors: Gerry Fortin and John Frost

Session 1: June 17-22

In this comprehensive look at Liberty Seated coinage, each series will be studied in detail, including half dimes, dimes, twenty-cents, quarters, half dollars, dollars and trade dollars. In addition, students will handle coins of all grades in all series. Topics include historical perspectives, key dates, collecting strategies, major varieties, grading, counterfeits and authentication.

What's New

Topics in British Numismatics

Instructors: Allan Davisson, Ph.D., and David "Chuck" Bianchi

Session 2: June 24-29

A topical approach to the numismatic history of the British Isles. Eight topics are discussed in depth with each class session dedicated to one topic. Historical time periods include Roman Britain, the Middle Ages and into the Modern Era. Coin iconography of Scotland and Ireland is explored, as well as issues in grading hammered and milled coins, among other topics.

What's Unusual

Intaglio Engraving

Instructor: Chris Madden
Session 2: June 24-29

This course offers instruction in intaglio engraving and etching. Students are introduced to engraving methods and cultivate an appreciation of the materials and techniques of bank note engraving. Through demonstrations and hands-on work, students learn the rudiments of the bank note engraver's craft and create intaglio prints pulled from engravings.

What's Essential

Detecting Counterfeit World Paper Money

Instructor: Joseph E. Boling
Session 2: June 24-29

Topics include the history of counterfeiting, printing techniques, security devices and their illegal replication, raised and altered notes, and entrepreneurial counterfeiting since the 19th century. Students have the opportunity to handle hundreds of examples of counterfeit notes, while matching genuine examples side by side. Special attention is devoted to counterfeit notes that are created specifically to sell to collectors.

Lodging

Students may select from a variety of lodging options to meet their needs, preferences and budget. Most stay in Colorado College campus dorms (adjacent to the ANA), while others elect to stay in nearby hotels. For a complete list of ANA preferred hotels, refer to page 22 of the Summer Seminar Course Catalog, or visit www.money.org/summer-seminar.

Travel

Summer Seminar attendees are encouraged to contact M&M World Travel Service for travel arrangements. M&M works closely with the ANA to provide competitive airline rates and personalized service. Students can take advantage of the ANA's complimentary shuttle by flying into the Colorado Springs Airport. To make M&M travel arrangements, call 800-426-8326 or email pwhitnah@mmworldtravel.com.
