Two gold dollars mark the centennial of the Louisiana Purchase, agreed upon by a treaty first signed in 1803. One obverse shows Thomas Jefferson, President when the treaty was made; the other pictures William McKinley, President who approved the Louisiana Purchase Exposition (LPE) held in 1804. The reverses are the same. Crossword clues relate to the Purchase and the dollar coins.

solution on page 98