

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS STILL AVAILABLE FOR NATIONAL MONEY SHOW IN MARCH

Accommodations are going fast for the hotels officially serving the American Numismatic Association's (ANA) National Money Show 2000 in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, March 3-5.

Although the headquarters hotel, the Marina Marriott at 1881 S.E. 17th Street, is sold out, two other establishments still are offering special discounted convention rates.

The Best Western/Marina Inn at 2150 S.E. 17th St. Causeway (800/327-1390) offers single/double accommodations for $99 per night, which includes a complimentary full breakfast. The hotel is within walking distance of the Greater Ft. Lauderdale/Broward County Convention Center at 1950 Eisenhower Blvd. The hotel will provide transportation to the convention center on request.

AmeriSuites at 1851 S.E. 10th Avenue (954/763-7670) has single/double suites available for $129 per night. Included is a complimentary continental breakfast and convention center shuttle.

For reservations, ANA members should contact the hotel directly. The deadline to ensure room availability at these special rates is February 1, 2000.

The ANA has arranged for airfare 5-15 percent discounts on Delta Air Lines, the official airline for the National Money Show. Since Florida is such a popular travel destination, especially at that time of year, the ANA Convention Department is urging those planning to attend the convention in Ft. Lauderdale to make their reservations early.

For reservations on the ANA's official airline to the 2000 National Money Show, call Delta Meeting Network Reservations at 800/241-6760 or M&M World Travel Service at 800/426-8326, and refer to File No. 135493A to obtain the appropriate discount.
