

Sponsors Show Their Support for ANA National Money Show

Thirteen sponsors have contributed a total of $37,000 to support the American Numismatic Association's (ANA) National Money Show<sup>SM</sup> 2002 in Jacksonville, Florida, March 7-9.

"We again are extremely pleased to see the wonderful support for this show," says ANA Convention Services Manager Brenda Bishop. "These sponsors help to make this convention the great event it is. On behalf of the membership, I want to thank them all."

The three Title Sponsors - each donating $7,500 - are:

- National coin dealer Delaware Valley Rare Coin Co., Inc.
- Coin-grading service Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC)
- On-line auction firm Yahoo! Auctions

Title Sponsors help support all aspects of the three-day show. They have their name imprinted on the registration bags given to all visitors registering for the three-day show and on the welcome banner at the entrance to the bourse. Title Sponsors also receive free convention program advertising, a recognition banner above their bourse table and sponsor ribbons for their staff.

The 10 Secondary Sponsors for the Jacksonville show each donated $1,000 or more and will be recognized on the entry and bourse-table signage, staff ribbons and convention program advertising.

Secondary Sponsors are:

- Spectrum Numismatics International - $2,500 - Treasure Trivia Game sponsor
- Anthony Terranova, Inc. - $2,000 - Scouting coin clinic sponsor
- Heritage Rare Coin Galleries - $1,500 - Message Center sponsor
