Sponsors Show Their Support For ANA National Money Show

Twenty-one sponsors contributed a total of $44,500 to support the American Numismatic Association's National Money Show™ April 7-9 in Atlanta, Georgia.

"We are very pleased to see the wonderful support for this show," said ANA Meeting Services Director Brenda Bishop. "Our sponsors contribute greatly to the success of our conventions. On behalf of our membership, I want to thank them all."

Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC), the ANA's official grading service, contributed $7,500 as the show's title sponsor. NGC, which is supporting all aspects of the three-day event, will have its name imprinted on bags given to all of the show's projected 5,000 visitors, and on the welcome banner at the entrance of the bourse. As title sponsor, NGC also receives free convention program advertising, a recognition banner above its bourse table and sponsor ribbons for its staff.

The 20 secondary sponsors each donated $1,000 or more and will be recognized on the entry and bourse-table signage, staff ribbons and convention program advertising. Four sponsors donated $500 for Casino Night gaming tables, where their names will be highlighted.

Secondary Sponsors are:

- Al Adams and The Gold Rush Gallery, $5000, Join a Local Coin Club Hospitality Area
- Superior Galleries, $5,000, registration drawing sponsor
