A member appreciation barbeque on March 24 highlights special events at the American Numismatic Association's 2010 National Money Show™, March 25-27 at the Fort Worth Convention Center. Attendees are also invited to attend the annual Friendship Luncheon, one of the convention's most popular traditions, on March 26.

Attendees for both events will depart from the convention center. Take advantage of early discounts through March 1. To register for an event, visit www.nationalmoneyshow.com and select the "I Want to Attend" button, or call 719-482-9857.

The member appreciation barbecue will be held March 24 from 6-9 p.m. at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing Western Currency Facility in Fort Worth. The facility features a Tour and Visitor Center with two floors of interactive exhibits showcasing the history of currency, including live demonstrations, a theater, and a gift shop.

The event will feature guided tours, live music and some of the best barbecued ribs, brisket and chicken in all of Texas. The price is $26 for anyone registering by March 1, and $35 for late registrants. The ANA, Heritage Auction Galleries and NGC will serve as co-hosts to kick off the first-ever National Money Show in Fort Worth.

The Friendship Luncheon will be held at Joe T. Garcia's Mexican restaurant on March 26 from noon-2 p.m. Established in 1935, Joe T. Garcia's is one of the Dallas/Fort Worth area's most popular dining spots. The restaurant's authentic Tex-Mex recipes include world-famous enchiladas and salsa sold throughout Texas. The price is $34 until March 1, and $40 after.

The National Money Show is open to the public from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday. Dealer set-up will be from noon to 6 p.m. on Wednesday, March 24. Admission is $6 for adults and free for ANA members and children 12 and under.

John Post is the event's general chairman.
