ANA announces Grading and Counterfeit Detection Seminars in Las Vegas

October 27 & 28, 2006

(Colorado Springs, Colorado) The American Numismatic Association (ANA) is offering classes in grading and counterfeit detection in conjunction with the ANA Coin, Stamp & Collectibles Show at the Mandalay Bay Resort & Casino Convention Center in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The 2-day classes, Fundamentals of Grading United States Coins and Introduction to Counterfeit Detection will both be held Thursday and Friday, October 27 and 28, 2005.

Knowledge of coin grading and counterfeit detection not only makes you more confident on the bourse floor, but also adds to your enjoyment of the hobby by helping take the worry out of numismatic purchases. Learn the intricacies of counterfeit detection and grading United States coins in these highly enriched hands-on seminars.

For more information or to register for these seminars, please contact Barbara Olson in the ANA Outreach Department at 719-482-9826.

The American Numismatic Association is a non-profit educational organization dedicated to educating and encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. With nearly 33,000 members, the Association serves the academic community, collectors and the general public with an interest in numismatics. The ANA helps all people discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of programs including its education and outreach, museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars.
