ANA's New "Discovery Guide" Offers a Great Way to Spread the Word

The American Numismatic Association (ANA) Education Department has prepared a "discovery guide" that is great for introducing the joys of coin collecting to the general public, young and emerging collectors, families and educators.

Presented in a friendly, easy-to-read format, the articles are timely, interesting and fun, and the eight-page, 11 x 17-inch "newspaper" is packed with "Know more!" references to web sites, books and periodicals.

Copies of "Discover: The World of Money" are available in bulk to ANA member clubs, educators and public speakers for just the cost of postage and handling: 50 copies, $6; 100 copies, $9; 250 copies, $20; and 450 copies, $25.

For more information or to place an order, contact the Education Department at 818 N. Cascade Ave., Colorado Springs, CO 80903 3279; telephone 719/632-2646; fax 719/634-4085; or E-mail education@money.org.

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. The ANA helps its 28,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of education and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars. For more information, call 719-632-2646 or go to www.money.org.
