

ANA Recognizes Top Volunteers in Representative Program

On the occasion of its 112th Anniversary Convention in Baltimore, the American Numismatic Association (ANA) announced its annual awards to distinguished volunteers in the Representative Program.

Selected from a number of topnotch nominees were:

Outstanding Club Representative--Ray Dillard, who has served the Flint (Michigan) Flying Eagle Coin Club for many years, including as treasurer and president. An active promoter of numismatics and the ANA, Dillard works continuously with this club, as well as a number of state and regional organizations, to keep them involved.

Helen Carmody-Lebo Memorial Award for Outstanding District Delegate--J. Eric Holcomb of Kent, Washington. An ANA life member, Holcomb has compiled an exceptional record of service in the Pacific Northwest as an ANA District Delegate. A member of every local coin club within 30 miles of his home, and two regional organizations, he also is editor of the ANA Representative Program newsletter, MintMark.

Terry Armstrong Memorial Award for Outstanding Regional Coordinator--Michael S. "Stan" Turrini of Vallejo, California. An outspoken and ardent supporter of both the hobby and the Representative Program, Turrini has performed exceedingly well as coordinator for Region 8, which covers northern California, publishing the "Stan-o-Gram" newsletter for his district and club representatives. His dedication and support are a tremendous asset.

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. The ANA helps its 28,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of education and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars.
