

2011 ANA Board of Governors Election Ballots Mailed June 2

COLORADO SPRINGS – Ballots for the 2011 American Numismatic Association Board of Governors election were mailed June 2, Executive Director Larry Shepherd has announced.

Ballot envelopes have the words, "Official election ballot" printed in the lower left corner and include the election auditing firm's return address: BiggsKofford, P.C., 630 Southpointe Court, Suite 200, Colorado Springs, CO 80906. A barcode is in the lower right corner.

Enclosed in each envelope is a ballot plus candidate photos, biographies and platforms, and an addressed return envelope to which members must affix a 44-cent postage stamp. Members living outside the U.S. have also been mailed ballots, and should affix the appropriate international postage.
