Greg Roberts Named 2011 Harry J. Forman Dealer of the Year

ANA Life Member Greg Roberts is the 2011 recipient of the American Numismatic Association Harry J. Forman Dealer of the Year Award, which was presented August 16 at the 2011 World's Fair of Money Kick-Off event at Chicago's Shedd Aquarium.

The award is presented annually to an ANA-member dealer who shows uncommon dedication to strengthening the hobby and the Association. The award is named in honor of the late Harry J. Forman, a Philadelphia coin dealer, author and ANA life member.

Born and raised in Pasadena, CA, Roberts is the Chief Executive Officer of Spectrum Group International, and a member of the Professional Numismatists Guild and Industry Council for Tangible Assets. He has been a professional numismatist since 1980.

As CEO of Spectrum Group International, Roberts manages the third-largest collectibles firm in the world with affiliates headquartered on three continents.

"Greg is a highly skilled and professional executive who commands the respect of dealers and collectors alike," said ANA Executive Director Larry Shepherd. "As architect of the Stack's Bowers Galleries merger, he has made a profound impact on the hobby this year."

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. The ANA helps its 30,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of education and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars.
