ANA Announces 2011 World's Fair of Money Exhibit Awards

The American Numismatic Association presented 61 competitive exhibit awards at the 2011 World's Fair of Money in Chicago. Winners were announced Aug. 19 at the exhibit awards reception and convention banquet. Forty-five exhibitors, showing 72 exhibits, competed in this year's program. There were also five non-competitive exhibitors showing eight exhibits.

Robert Rhue received the Howland Wood Memorial Award for Best-in-Show for his exhibit, "A Complete Collection of Regular Issue North American Horsecar Tokens." The Radford Stearns Memorial Award for Excellence in Exhibiting, presented to the first and second runners-up, was awarded, respectively, to Lawrence Sekulich for "Dolphin Myths and Symbols on Selected Ancient Greek and Roman Coins," and George Kolbe for "Numismatic Bibliography 1579-1912: The Literature of Numismatic Literature." Kolbe also won the Thos. H. Law Award for First-Time Exhibitors.

The Rodger E. Hershey Memorial People's Choice Award, selected by convention attendees, was given to Jeffrey Rosinia for "Chicago: My Kind of Coin Town: Chicagoland Coin Savers." Adrian Jellinek received the Derek Pobjoy Award for Best Exhibit of Modern Circulating Commemorative Coins for "Lincoln Cent Coins Over the Decades."

The ANA also presented competitive exhibit awards for young numismatists (YNs) age 17 and younger. The Charles H. Wolfe Sr. Memorial Award for the YN Best-in-Show exhibit was presented to Katherine Reinders for "Happy Birthday Oregon: A Collection of 1959 Medals and Tokens Issued in Celebration of the Oregon Statehood Centennial."

The Ira & Larry Goldberg Award for Best Exhibit of Coins that Made History was presented to Lawrence Sekulich for "Dolphin Myths and Symbols on Selected Ancient Greek and Roman Coins." Sam Deep was announced as the recipient of the Joseph E. Boling Award for Judging Excellence. Deep will receive the award at the ANA's National Money show in Pittsburgh in October.
