Exhibitors Invited to Pittsburgh National Money Show

Members of the American Numismatic Association are invited to showcase their collections and research with fellow hobbyists by presenting educational exhibits at the 2011 Pittsburgh National Money Show, Oct. 13-15 at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center.

The Collector Exhibits area brings together talented numismatic exhibitors and collections from across the country. All areas of numismatics are represented, including U. S. coins and paper money, ancient coins, tokens and medals, and other topics from around the world.

Exhibitors have the option to enter their displays as competitive or non-competitive. Competitive exhibits are judged on a variety of standards, including educational value, presentation, and degree of difficulty. Awards are given in six categories; several special awards are also presented.

For rules, application forms and rating sheets, visit www.nationalmoneyshow.com (select "Museum Showcase & Exhibits"). Exhibit applications must be submitted by Sept. 15. For questions or more information, call 719-482-9849 or e-mail exhibits@money.org.

The Pittsburgh National Money Show is the ANA's inaugural fall National Money Show. Show hours are 9 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Oct. 13-15. Admission is $6 for adults, and free for ANA members and children 12 and under. For more information, visit www.nationalmoneyshow.com.

The American Numismatic Association is a nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. The ANA helps its 30,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of education and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars.
