ANA to Host Sacramento National Money Show Kickoff Event March 16

The American Numismatic Association will kick off its 2011 Sacramento National Money Show in style, with an evening of food, wine, fun and camaraderie from 6:30-9:30 p.m., March 16, at the Old Sugar Mill in nearby Clarksburg. A special numismatic surprise also awaits attendees of this event.

The Old Sugar Mill is home to a community of six wineries and a state-of-the-art production facility. The wineries feature vineyards that are staking their claim alongside the great wine growing regions of the world. Carvalho Family Winery will supply wine for the reception and dinner, and open its tasting room for the event. The historic building's wineries will have products available for purchase:

- Carvalho Family Wines
- Todd Taylor Wines
- Three Wine Company
- Solomon Wine Company
- Heringer Estates
- Clarksburg Wine Company

The cost of the event is $70 through Feb. 4, and includes a wine tasting and reception, three-course dinner and transportation to and from the Sacramento Convention Center. To purchase tickets, call 719-482-9857 or visit www.nationalmoneyshow.com.

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. The ANA helps its members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of education and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars.
