ANA Seeking Numismatic Theatre Proposals for Pittsburgh National Money Show

American Numismatic Association members are encouraged to share their ideas and research with fellow hobbyists by delivering a Numismatic Theatre presentation at the ANA's 2011 Pittsburgh National Money ShowSM, Oct. 13-15 at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center.

Numismatic Theatre consists of 30-45 minute presentations on a wide range of topics, and is a chance for collectors to share their expertise with the numismatic community. Presentations from previous shows include "The Comstock Lode and the Carson City Mint," "The Art and Propaganda of Napoleon's Commemorative Medals" and "The S.S. Central America Treasure." A videographer will be on hand to record the presentations; talks should be accompanied by digital images or slides.

Collectors interested in giving a Numismatic Theatre presentation can download a proposal form at www.nationalmoneyshow.com (select the "Education" tab). Proposals can be sent by fax to 719-634-4085, or by mail to the ANA Education Department, 818 N Cascade Ave, Colorado Springs, CO 80903. Proposals must be received by Sept. 2.

The Pittsburgh National Money Show is the ANA's inaugural fall National Money Show. Show hours are 9 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Oct. 13-15. Admission is $6 for adults, and free for ANA members and children 12 and under. For more information, visit www.nationalmoneyshow.com.

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. The ANA helps its members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of education and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars.
