ANA Recognizes Exhibitors at World's Fair of Money in Baltimore

The American Numismatic Association presented 71 competitive exhibit awards at the 2008 World's Fair of Money® in Baltimore. Winners were announced at the Exhibit Awards Presentation and Reception on Aug. 2.

Sixty-one exhibitors of all ages and experience levels, showing 85 displays, competed in this year's program. There were also 9 non-competitive exhibitors showing 16 exhibits. The Collector Gallery featured eight current or former ANA convention Best-of-Show exhibits.

The top exhibitor was Mack Martin, who received the Howland Wood Memorial Award for Best-of-Show for his exhibit, "State of Georgia Currency Certificates, 1861-1865." First runner-up was Sam Deep, for "Off the Beaten Numismatic Path." Second runner-up was Steve Middleton for "Medals of the First Ferris Wheel."

Sandra Emme won the Thos. H. Law Award for first-time exhibitors for "A Brief History of Ballooning." The Rodger E. Hershey Memorial People's Choice Award, selected by those attending the show, was given to Deep for "Off the Beaten Numismatic Path." Zachary Beier received the Derek Pobjoy Award for best exhibit of modern circulating commemorative coins for "Westward Ho! The Journey of Louis and Clark."

The ANA also presented competitive exhibit awards for Young Numismatists (YN) age 17 and younger. The Charles H. Wolfe Sr. Memorial Award for YN Best-in-Show exhibit was presented to Katie Heinrich for "Uncommon Women on Common Currency."
