Summer Seminar Dates Set Through 2015

Know what you're doing June 27, 2015? Enjoying the first day of the ANA's annual Summer Seminar, of course.

The ANA has scheduled Summer Seminar dates through 2015. With many groups returning to the beautiful Colorado College year after year, advanced scheduling allows Summer Seminar attendees to plan trips well in advance and ensures space in dorms, communal areas, meeting rooms and more room in the cafeteria. Overall, it makes the sessions more comfortable for students and instructors.

"We want people to know the dates well in advance to make planning a trip easier," ANA Educational Programs Director Jane Colvard said. "This should also reduce or prevent scheduling conflicts with coin shows."
