World's Fair of Money® Auctioneers Announced

The American Numismatic Association is proud to announce the Official Auctioneers for the 2020 and 2021 World's Fair of Money.

Heritage Auctions and Stack's Bowers Galleries will continue to provide auction services for the World's Fair of Money in the years 2020 and 2021—on the heels of completing a six-year run conducting successful auctions for the annual ANA convention.

"We're delighted that ANA members and World's Fair of Money attendees will be able to consign to and purchase from Heritage Auctions and Stack's Bowers Galleries – both of which have a long and successful history with the ANA," said ANA Executive Director Kimberly Kiick. "Both auction houses have been long-standing supporters of our educational mission, and we couldn't be more thrilled to have them return as the Official Auctioneers for the show."

Stack's Bowers Galleries and Heritage Auctions each will conduct separate auctions for the next two World's Fair of Money Official Auctions. The 2020 show will be held Aug. 4-8 in Pittsburgh, Penn.; the 2021 show will return to the Chicago suburb of Rosemont, Ill., Aug. 10-14. Both organizations will be conducting auctions at the 2019 World's Fair of Money in Rosemont, Aug. 13-17.

The World's Fair of Money is the nation's premier numismatic event, featuring the most expansive educational programs and the best numismatic inventory available anywhere. The show features hundreds of numismatic dealers; live auctions conducted by preeminent auction firms; the ANA's signature Museum Showcase, exhibiting some of the world's most valuable and beautiful coins and paper money; collector exhibits; as well as educational presentations, seminars and social events.

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered, nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging the study and collection of coins and related items. The ANA helps its 25,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its array of instructional and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications and conventions.
