ANA Accepting Papers For Sundman Lecture Series

COLORADO SPRINGS – The American Numismatic Association is accepting papers on “Communicating Through Money,” from authors who would like to make presentations at the third annual Maynard Sundman/Littleton Coin Co. Lecture Series.

Six authors will be selected to make presentations August 9 at the ANA’s World’s Fair of Money in Milwaukee. Selected presenters will receive a $250 honorarium.

Submissions, which are due April 30, should be abstracts of 500 words or less, and include an introduction, methodology and sources, and discussion sections. Abstracts will be evaluated based on originality, persuasiveness and relevance to the topic.

Lectures will focus on how money serves as a means of communication now as well as throughout history. Priority will be given to papers that emphasize new research and scholarship.

For more information or to submit an extract, e-mail brunner@money.org, call 719-482-9872 or write: Lane J. Brunner, Ph.D., Deputy Executive Director, Museum, Library and Research Services, American Numismatic Association, 818 N. Cascade Ave., Colorado Springs, CO 80903.

The American Numismatic Association is a nonprofit organization dedicated to educating and encouraging people to study and collect money and related items. With nearly 32,000 members, the Association serves the collecting and academic communities and the general public with an interest in numismatics. The ANA helps people discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of programs including its education and outreach, museum, library, publications, conventions and seminars.
