

Author, Author!

Across

1. Original Guide Book author.
4. Colonial money author.
8. Prolific NH author.
11. Computer address initials.
12. Lake or canal.
13. U.S. Mint & Coinage author.
15. Do no work.
16. Women's magazine.
17. Pat the dog.
18. Word play.
19. Author of "The Raven."
21. Round symbol of power.
23. Surfer's sibling.
24. Procedure.
25. Not dressed.
27. Wholesale selling price.
29. Belonging to him.
30. Major airline initials.
31. "Turn ___ the first light."
33. Short snooze.
36. Early quarter author.
39. Fuel mined in WV.
40. Grading book author, with 22 down.
41. Silver dollar variety book author, with 26 down.
42. 1804 dollar author.

Down

2. Where the sun rises.
3. Liberty Seated dimes author.
5. Early half dollar author.
6. Early cent author.
7. Coin World's "Comprehensive Catalog" editor.
8. Prolific "Encyclopedia" author.
9. Lincoln cent author.
10. Flying Eagle & Indian cent author.
14. U.S. gold & pattern coin author.
17. U.S. pattern author.
20. Public notice of death (slang).
22. Grading author, with 40 across.
24. Gold washing tool.
26. Dollar variety author, with 41 across.
28. Private gold coin author.
29. Pilgrimage to Mecca.
32. Hawaiian welcome wreath.
34. Hawaiian taro root food.
35. Pie ___ mode.
37. Possess.
38. Uncirculated.

THIS MONTH'S CHALLENGE, featuring authors of numismatic reference books, is a two-step puzzle. Step 1: solve the crossword. Step 2: unscramble the letters highlighted in green to find the name of a seminal author. If you're stumped, consult the reference book listed below or the ANA Library catalog at www.money.org.

solution on page 108

Scrambled Name:

Hint: This author published his ground-breaking, 54-page "book" in 1893.

Learn More...

Coin World Almanac, Millennium Edition (Chapter 22).